27th June 2010

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings: 1 Kings 19:16.19-21; Psalm 15

Galatians 5:1.13-18; Luke 9:51-62

Reflection:

To answer Jesus' question 'Who do you say I am?' we must travel along the road with him and become his companion. As we do, we discover that his life is not aimless, it has a destination and that is God. If we join him on the road we realise that we are no longer wanderers, going nowhere, but pilgrims with restless hearts making our way, along with many other saints and sinners, towards that for which our hearts yearn and which many call the Kingdom of God.

TODAY 27 JUNE

Tea and Coffee after the 10am Mass.

The retiring collection this week will be for the work of the SVP.

No retiring collection next week.

SVP COLLECTION

This week's collection is for the work of the SVP and from the proceeds a donation will be made to enable disadvantaged children to have a week's holiday at the SVP Ozanam Centre in North Wales in late July. Many thanks for your continued generosity to our work.
