4th July 2010

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings: Isaiah 66:10-14; Psalm 65

Galatians 6:14-18; Luke 10:1-12.17-20

Reflection:

The gospel today, is a report of the ministerial commissioning of Jesus' disciples. It is clear that ministry is dependant upon Jesus. His disciples are called by him, are sent by him and work in his name. We too are called, sent and work at every aspect of our lives in his name. Like those first missionaries we do not work alone but together, with each other and with Jesus through the Holy Spirit.

Today is a day of prayer for life, let us pray that the life that we have, will be effective in bringing the joy of life in Christ wherever we can.

Cardinal Newman said, 'Fear not that your life will come to an end, but rather that it shall never have a beginning.'
