5 November 2006 Thirtieth-first Sunday In Ordinary Time

Today's Readings

First Reading: Deut 6:2-6

Sec. Reading: Hebrews 7:23-28

Gospel: Mark 12: 28-34

Reflection

We can find that it is easier to love an unseen God than to love people whose weakness we see, people who disappoint us and in our eyes are difficult and unreliable (including ourselves!).

Yet Jesus in our Gospel insists that love of God and love of people are one and inseparable. His message today can be summed up as: 'Listen people of the New Covenant: Love God with all that is in you; and remember that love includes everyone.'

TODAY - 5 November

Children's Liturgy at the 10.00 am Mass. Tea and coffee after 10.00am Mass.
Today's retiring collection is for the work of CAFOD

HOLY SOULS

If you would like someone to be remembered at all Masses celebrated here during November, please write their name on a slip of paper and place it in the basket on the table in front of the altar. Please do not include money. Paper and pens are on the porch table.

FR. JONATHAN

We are sorry to announce that Father Jonathan will be leaving us in a fortnight as he has been asked to go to the Cathedral to work with Canon Stephen. His place will be taken by Fr. Ned Wall who is returning to the diocese after 10 years in Peru. We expect him to be here until September when he will be appointed to a parish of his own.

Latin Mass next Sunday, 12 November, at 3 pm in the church, followed by refreshments in Westleigh.

FIRST SACRAMENTS - YEAR 2 AND ABOVE.

Preparation for First Forgiveness and First Holy Communion for those children attending a school other than St. Vincent's will commence in November. If you wish to register your child/children for this preparation please contact Mary Farrell on 0161 282 9340, mobile 07976 366 128.
